A HIGH-BRED TOWER. A Boston spinster owns a dog. One of those high-bred "towers" That's so well bred and nice, 'tis said, He never pants—he "trousers."

—Philadelphia Post.

The best Ice Cream Soda and Phosphates are at Ray's Soda Fountain, 5 cents.

The vote on local option at Georgetown is to take place Saturday, August 18th.

There will be fifty-three Sundays in this year, an occurrence that will not happen again for 110 years.

At the re-opening of the Minerva Methodist Church last Sunday a collection of $155 was taken to pay off the indebtedness.

Sylvester Reed, telegraph operator at Wellsburg, and Miss Nellie Frayre of Augusta were married recently at Connorsville, Ind.

The meeting at the Germantown Christian Church, conducted by Rev. Mark Collis of Lexington, has resulted so far in eight additions.

Prof. C. W. Reynolds has tendered his resignation as Principal of the Colored High School of this city, having recently been elected Principal of the Colored High School at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at a salary of $110 per month.

Ladies, have you seen our new line of Belt Buckles, Bracelets, Side and Back Combs, Hand Bags, Scarf and Stick Pins, Fobs and Chains, Dress Pins, Hat Pins? These goods are all positively new and stylish. You can see them in our show windows. Call and see them.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Eggs are commanding 12¢ at Washington. You can get strictly pure Paris Green at lowest possible price at Sallie Wood's Drugstore.

On account of the absence of Rev. T. P. DeGman there will be no services at Bethany Church tomorrow.

Henry Shaffer, aged 25, of Mt. Gilead, and Miss Jennie Greenlee, aged 24, of Bradyville, O., were granted marriage license the past week at West Union.

Colonel George W. Dye regretted very much his inability to be at the Ripley Fair Thursday, but the train left him, as is frequently the case in matters of more importance than a Fair.

Work on the new street in West Third progressed yesterday in a rapid and satisfactory manner. The concrete work is now finished from Wall to a point opposite the Courthouse.

The "Red Corner" has lost its identity and is a thing of the past—so far as color is concerned. The building has been painted a light gray and the marked change is rather agreeable, than otherwise. Workmen are engaged in putting the building in readiness for the new Bank.

Frank Ball, who recently escaped jail at Richmond, was captured Thursday in Virginia by Sheriff Rice Johnson and posse of Middlesboro, after a battle which raged for one hour. After John Lee, one of Ball's men, had been killed, Ball surrendered. He is now in the Louisville jail.

NOTICE.

Having been compelled to quit my business on account of ill health and to sell my blacksmith tools, consisting of two bellows, one vice, one drill press, one mule stocks and other articles, I now ask those having claims against me to present them at once, and those indebted to me to please call and settle.

C. S. Jackson of Nepton has been appointed an eligible substitute in the Railway Mail Service.

Prof. W. H. Cord, formerly of Fleming county, but for eighteen years at the head of the Hazel Green Academy, has resigned, and contemplates establishing a school at Mt. Sterling.

Mr. Ernest Miles, who has been in the tea and coffee business at Birmingham, Ala., for some time, has disposed of his interest to Prof. E. Swift, formerly of this city, who will attend to the working up of the trade. Mr. Miles and his brother, Harry, have rented a storeroom at Lexington, and will, about the middle of September, open a retail tea, coffee and spice store there. The field promises well, as this will be the only one of its kind in that place. Mr. Miles will spend several weeks here visiting among his friends.

Mrs. Mary W. Holton, among many interesting papers of long ago that belonged to the family of her ancestor, Captain Charles Ward, one of the largest land owners of the county, has that gentleman's tax books when he was Sheriff of the county in 1801. She has also an autograph letter from Mrs. Louisa Keats, sister of the poet Keats, who was then teaching a select school at Washington, addressed to Captain Ward, regarding the placing of his daughter or daughters at her seminary. It is well preserved. Mrs. Holton has an heirloom, a counterpane, that came to her mother, the late Mrs. Amanda B. Ward, from her aunt, Mrs. Polly Gill, who was a Miss Barker, a well known lady of the county, that has been in the family for a century.

SALE!

Webster says it's an act of selling. So by Webster's meaning we trust that every store has a sale every day.

SALE, the Merz kind, was not known in Webster's days so, of course, we will excuse Webster.

SOME STORES are doing business in Webster's time now---that's not our fault---and should we interfere there might be trouble.

SALE with us means goods must go. Cut prices so they will go.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Insurance Company Will Repair It—
James Wormald's Portrait

The Public Library insurance policy contains a clause, whereby the Company reserves the right to pay indemnity or replace the building in as good a condition as it was before the fire, and its representative has chosen the latter.

There is hardly a doubt but that its local agent, Mr. John G. Wadsworth, will take special pains in seeing that the city's pride is restored to its original beauty and to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. There should be no patch work business about it, and competent men should do the work.

There is a large oil painting of the late James Wormald—one of the founders of the Library—that is sadly neglected and in a state of decay. The portrait has passed through one fire and is blistered and otherwise disfigured. It is a shame that such is the case, but it is, nevertheless. Steps should be taken at once to have the likeness restored before the outlines of the benefactor and philanthropist are entirely obliterated.

There are several artists in the city capable of restoring the painting, and the cost will not exceed $60. Who of our philanthropist and well-to-do citizens will contribute the amount? Longer neglect will give a tinge of truthfulness to the saying that dead men and their good deeds are soon forgotten.

Don't you think you'd better let it. When it's raining, rain away. For the sun will be shining bright. If you take Rocky Mountain Tea tonight. J. J. Wood & Son.

300 Acres of Tobacco Land!

Mr. Dan Morgan has this day listed with me his farm, located about 6 miles from Maysville, containing 300 acres of land, all of which is in a high state of cultivation. All but 60 acres of this land is in fine bluegrass, and not 5 acres on the entire farm that will not grow excellent tobacco. Very little of this farm has been cultivated within the past ten years, and is now ready for tobacco or anything that the purchaser may desire to use it for. As a money making proposition there is no other farm in Mason county that is its equal. It will be sold as a whole or in separate tracts to suit the purchasers.

PRANKS OF BOYS

They Hang a Dummy and Enjoy the Fright of Passersby!

The young America of Fifth street are as full of pranks as a dog is of fleas, and one cloudy night this week they were in exuberant spirits and out for fun.

Of course their hilarity was at the expense of the staid and older residents of the street, and especially those domiciled East of Plum fell easy victims to their weird scheme.

They had in effigy the figure of a good-sized boy, to which was attached a stout cord. The twine being passed over one of the overhead wires was carried on up in the Fourth Ward schoolyard, where the conspirators rendezvoused.

After arrangements had been completed the string was drawn taut and the figure yanked up out of sight.

The first to approach was a well-known citizen wending his way home, and no doubt in meditation over the trials and tribulations of things earthly.

When the lonesome individual had reached the fated spot, the line was slackened and down dropped the dummy at his feet.

The dim light and the sudden appearance of the ghost-like apparition and the haunted surroundings caused his heart to stop beating; great beads of sweat stood on his forehead, his hair raised like the quills on the back of a porcupine, and for a moment he was petrified to the spot.

When he recovered his thoughts and took in the situation he did not fly into a rage and exterminate the boys, together with their hair-raising device. On the contrary he was philosophical and wise.

He retired to a secluded spot where he could watch and enjoy the discomfiture and antics of the next victim.

The gentleman acknowledges that he was frightened, but consoles himself with the fact that he was not the only victim of the mischievous rascals.

Mr. L. T. Anderson of this city was awarded first premium in the fancy turnout ring yesterday at the Ripley Fair.

LAST QUARTERLY MEETING.

The last quarterly meeting for the present Conference year will be held at the First M. E. Church, South, next Sunday morning. The Rev. John R. Deering, P. E., will preach the sermon. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will follow the sermon. Public cordially invited.

Dr. James Weir, Jr., physician and author, of Owensboro, died Thursday at Virginia Beach, Va.

If you wait too long and the headache gets started the remedy is still just as certain to cure. Your money will be refunded if the remedy ever fails.

The Evansville (Ind.) Courier says: "The Beggar Prince Opera Company was most favorably received at Oak Summit Park and is the strongest park attraction that has appeared in Evansville. The company is splendid throughout, and not one who sees the performance, but what will recommend it to his friends and he will come again." This company will be Beechwood's closing attraction, week of August 27th, and comes under a large guarantee. The Management thought that their patrons would enjoy a week of summer opera and they trust that their efforts will be rewarded with big attendance.

BOGGS.

Mrs. Lock continues quite ill.
Miss Mary Truitt will teach the Cottageville school this year.

Miss Abbie Craycraft of Mason county is visiting relatives here.

Dr. and Mrs. Hill are now domiciled in the Henry Emmons property.

Mr. John Day of North Carolina has been visiting relatives in these parts.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Potts are convalescing from whooping cough.

An automobile of excursionists from Flemingsburg passed through here Saturday.

Last Sunday, Mr. W. H. Rhinehart was elected and ordained an Elder of Ebenezer Presbyterian Church.

Rains came just as we needed them and crops are better in this section than they have been for years.

Miss Mary Truitt and Mrs. Lida Hord are attending the Teachers' Institute this week at Vanceburg.

Mr. Raymond Chunn and Miss Floride Clark of Manchester were pleasant guests of friends here Saturday.

Rev. Dr. Whitfield preached here last Sunday and the preceding Sunday. He talks of conducting a few days meeting, beginning the third Sunday inst.

Mr. Edwin Boggs will represent our Sunday school at the State Convention at Ashland.

Mrs. Lida Hord is teaching the best school here that we have had for years, though the attendance is very small.

A few days ago F. P. Tully was thrown from a mowing machine and had the sole of one shoe cut off, but fortunately he was unhurt.

James Nash has been appointed Overseer of our pike, and we hope he will prove to be the right man in the right place. The Lewis county pikes are a problem. We need a different system and the money collected for the pikes should be used for the pikes.

Quite a number from here attended Ruggles Campmeeting last Sunday, but we have not been able to learn from any of them what kind of services were held; they politely inform us that they did not go to attend services, but all of them seemed to know how icecream, lemonade and water melons sold.

NICE COMPLIMENT

Former Citizen Elected to Board of Education at Chattanooga

Mr. B. F. Thomas, a native of this city, but for many years a resident of Chattanooga, Tenn., has been elected a member of the Board of Education of that city. The following complimentary notice is taken from Tuesday's issue of The Daily Times of Chattanooga—

"Favorable comment was heard last night concerning the selection of Mr. Thomas as successor to Mr. Peeples. He is Vice-President of the Administration and Trust Company and Secretary and Treasurer of the parent Coca-Cola Bottling Company. Mr. Thomas is a native Kentuckian, a scholarly man of exceptional executive ability, and it would be difficult to select any one in Chattanooga better equipped and qualified to render most valuable assistance to the cause of public education. Before engaging in commercial pursuits Mr. Thomas devoted his time entirely to the practice of law and as a solicitor and counsellor yet enjoys an eminent position. He has been a resident of Chattanooga for many years and enjoys to marked extent the esteem of the community."
